. s s - 2	Approved For Relpase 2002/10/16 : CIA-RDP68R00530A000100090046-8-1	25X1/ -/, 4
		25X1
	Copy 3	25X1
	29 June 19	165
	MEMORANDUM FOR CIA MEMBER UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD
	THROUGH : Deputy Director (Intelligence) pre
	SUBJECT : Photographic Reconneissance Coverage of South China, 22 June - 28 June 1965
	REFERENCE : USIB-D-41.18/23 (COMOR-D-25/174), 29 June 1965
	1. This is a briefing memorandum on the subject report which is scheduled for Board noting by 1 July 1985. A recommendation is contained in paragraph 4.
	2. U-2's and BLUE SPRINGS drones have remained on const alert to cover targets in South Chins during the past week. How flights have not been possible because of adverse weather. Furth	lerer-
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted.	25X in the
	3. Since I June, three of the 34 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. No deployments which would change the basic military posture in the	25X In the 25X1 major25X1
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source.	25X In the 25X1 major25X1
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation:	25X In the 25X1 major25X1
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source.	25X in the 25X1 major25X1 area,
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation:	25X in the 25X1 major25X1 area,
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation:	25X in the 25X1 major25X1 area,
	3. Since I June, three of the 34 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report.	25X in the 25X1 major 25X1 area,
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Modeling the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report. DDI/COS/Recce: Distribution:	25X in the 25X1 major 25X1 area,
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. No deployments which would change the basic military posture in the however, have been observed from any source. 4. Recommendation: It is recommended that you note the attached report. DDI/CGB/Recce: Distribution: Copy #1 - CIA Member USIB #2 - DD/I	25X In the 25X1 major25X1
	3. Since I June, three of the 24 highest priority targets area have been covered by satellite photography. No significant changes were noted. Ro Ro	25X In the 25X1 35X1 25X1 25X1